

Membership Meeting, May 2, 2023

Call to order at 6:30pm by President Phyllis Renninger.

Minutes from the April 4, 2023 membership meeting were approved.

Membership report: 121 members. Birthday greetings from April through August. Welcomed visitors. Dues for next year are due September 1. Mail it in or bring it to next meeting. Print the membership application from the website. $5 discount for cash or check. $20 for students.

Treasurer's Report: Approximately $22,500.

Past President's Report: Swearing in of officers: Phyllis Renninger and Edie Dozsa remain as President and Treasurer, Rhona Scoville as Secretary. A request was made for a Vice President. Committee Chairs Beth Haizlip, Kathy Plante, Linda Hawkins, Sandy Jones, Nancy Page, and Kim Russell were introduced.

Announcements:

- Nancy Page introduced the three scholarship finalists: Lola Lanier and Makayla Lampfer, both from Oakleaf High School and Shannah Murphy from Orange Park High School, all of whom received a portfolio bag of art supplies. Nancy also explained about the Courtenay Hunt Scholarship donation and that each member received two Limited Edition prints upon sign-in. Nancy introduced members of the scholarship committee.
- Kim Russell talked about the summer project "Celebrating 50 Years of Style" and the Crosswalk Project on July 31. See Constant Contact for updates.
- Beth Haizlip and Dee Roberts discussed Club Continental. Volunteers are still needed.
- Linda Hawkins has 50th Anniversary items for sale and more will be ordered.
- Phyl Renninger passed around an article from Clay Today, reminded us of the new date and location of Putting on the Glitz, encouraged you to share ideas with the board for the strategic planning meeting, and talked about the October 28 Art Studio Tour.
- Kathy Plante announced an art exhibit at Jacksonville International Airport which will be open to Clay County artists and members of the Art Guild. The theme is "Take Me There," and registration deadline is July 5th.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:05.

The Courtenay Hunt Scholarship was awarded to Shannah Murphy from Orange Park. Shannah plans to attend Ringling College of Art and Design. First runner up was Makayla Lampfer and second runner up was Lola Lanier.